

Relief Assistant Hotel Manager- Victoria

Toga Hospitality, owners and operators of Medina Apartment Hotels, Vibe Hotels and Travelodge Hotels is seeking a career minded individual to join their team as a Relief Assistant Hotel Manager. This varied role will expose the successful candidate to each of our hotel brands, giving endless opportunities for growth across all of our Victorian properties.

This role would suit a Duty Manager or Front Office Manager looking for that big break in their hospitality career.

Whilst the focus of this role is Rooms Division Management, the Relief Assistant Manager is also responsible for the entire hotel operation in the absence of the Hotel Manager.

The position requires a proven track record of experience in Front office and Rooms division management.

The successful applicant will:

- Thrive in a busy team environment
- Demonstrate outstanding verbal & written communication skills
- Be professionally presented
- Have relevant qualifications from a recognised training institution
- Have proven yield management skills
- Posses excellent time and task management skills
- Have a desire to further your hospitality career

This position offers the opportunity to develop in the offered role as well as the potential to advance at other Medina, Adina, Vibe or Travelodge Hotels throughout Australia/New Zealand & Europe.

If you excel in your current position and would like to be a part of a dynamic, growing group, apply now!
